Mr. Centorino graduated from MHS knowing that he wanted to devote his professional life to teaching high school students. As a graduate of Stonehill College, Mr. C, as he is affectionately known, returned to Marshfield High School with the mission of influencing young minds by teaching the subject of history to his very first class-The Class of 2005. Though young, Mr. Centorino developed a teaching style all his own--one that engaged his classes, keeping us entertained and yet at the same time, interested and motivated to pursue the tasks at hand. A kid at heart, his exuberant personality beams, not only at his students, but at the school as a whole. His involvement in Student Council and Brooks' World Travels truly shows his dedication to our school community. MHS would surely not be the same place if not for the spirited enthusiasm and energy of Mr. C.

We, the Class of 2005, would like to dedicate this yearbook to our two most memorable teachers: Ms. Goode & Mr. Centorino

Ms. Goode, although unbeknownst to her at the time, had the great opportunity of teaching the Class of 2005, not once, but twice. Ms. Goode, a high school teacher, came down to Furnace Brook

Middle School when we were 8th graders, teaching us US History. When we entered the 11th grade, Ms. Goode came back up to the high school, again teaching history--and a whole lot more. Ms. Goode helped us prepare for the real world--giving us insight not only into events of the past, but into the future and what it may hold for us. She truly sees people not as a letter grade or as another face in her class, but as the person they are and the potential they possess. Students know that if they ever need help or advice, all they have to do is ask, because she is always willing to listen and give a helping hand. Her involvement in Brooks' World Travels could not be more suiting to her personality for she loves kids and has a heart of gold. Miss Goode is a pillar at Marshfield High and will always be remembered for her kindness, honesty, and words of encouragement to The Class of 2005 and beyond.

Ms. Helman – Class Advisor
Class of 2005

Your freshman year started like every other school year. It was September of 2001. You all piled into Marshfield High, small, lost and scared. Within a week, the world as we knew it changed forever. And as the rest of the world sat with baited breath the Class of 2005 began to make its mark on Marshfield High School.

You began High School by living through a historic event; you finished by making history. The Class of 2005 began the annual event of The Meeting on the Mountain. We have accomplished something no other class has ever done. You can know that you have left your mark.

The mark you leave on Marshfield High is one of academic, athletic, artistic and musical excellence. You are a diverse class of amazing people. You have learned about friendships and loss, generosity and fear, and hopefulness and need. You set out into the world with a huge task at hand. The Class of 2005 will be asked to fix what messes exist in the world. You have a big job.

I am confident that you will soar through your lives with grace and poise. To me you will always be those little freshmen that walked the hallways in awe. I have been blessed to know this class and to be a part of your lives. My heart will be heavy next year without you, but know that I cannot wait to hear about all of the truly amazing accomplishments you all will have. You can only fail at those things that you do not try.

All my love
Helman

In Memory of Lee Crawley

...If I could choose one color to describe me it would be turquoise. Green is into Nature, Blue is that you are quiet and do not talk out loud. These two colors combined equal one part of me. Green is the envious part of me with super heros. Blue equals sky where they fly and I wish to be. Blue and green equals turquoise, which is me.

To The Class of 2005

In September of 2001, the class of 2005 walked through the doors of Marshfield High School to start our High School experience. We came over from Furnace Brook Middle School where we were the oldest for two years in a row and knew that school like the back of our hand. Now, we were the youngest and had no idea what we were doing. As freshman we had many new challenges, like finding our way around our new school and becoming united as a class.

One of the things we will always remember about our freshman year is the event that took the whole country by surprise. We will never forget where we were when we found out that the World Trade Center had been attacked. Together, family, friends, teachers, and administrators comforted us as a new sense of patriotism, unity, and maturity was found in us.

As sophomores, we were still underclassmen but wanted to show off all of our talent. We were keeping up with our academics and showing our skill with our leadership and athletic accomplishments, but we really caught everyone's eye with the planning of our sophomore fashion show "Fashionably Loud". We modeled everything from ski wear to formal wear and the Class of 2005 made everything look good.

In the summer going into our Junior year we were faced with one of the most difficult problems, the loss of a valuable classmate and friend to all, Brooks Singer. He will be in our hearts forever. We would be challenged academically and face a new era of maturity. We were finally upperclassmen and things began to get more difficult. On May 7th, we had our Junior Prom with the theme "Here's to the night". The class of 2005 arrived at the Quincy Marriot looking like royalty. We spent the night dancing, taking pictures, and making memories that would last a lifetime.

As Seniors graduating in the spring, we wanted to make the best of our last year at Marshfield High School. Our first event of the year was the first ever "Meeting on the Mountain" to unite our class by accomplishing something as a class. Even though climbing Mt. Wachusett was a little more challenging than we all expected, we made it!! We overcame our first obstacle for the year and made many memories. Then we came to the real obstacles of our senior year. We realized that soon we would all be leaving Marshfield and starting a new life. We had to make decisions that would affect the rest of our lives. College? The Army? Work? The future was now in our hands. We would spend our last few months together at events like Senior Night Out, Senior Banquet, and Grad Night Live and learned to appreciate moments with our friends before we have gone our separate ways.

Our four years at Marshfield High School have come to an end, but our memories will stay with us for lifetime. We have experienced history and made history. We have seen our country come together in time of need, we have seen the Patriots win two Superbowls, and the Red Sox win a World Series, but we were the first eighth grade at Furnace Brook Middle School, held the first Meeting on the Mountain, and have set the bar for the Marshfield standard even higher in and out of the classroom.

Good luck to everyone in whatever you do, and never forget your memories from Marshfield High School!

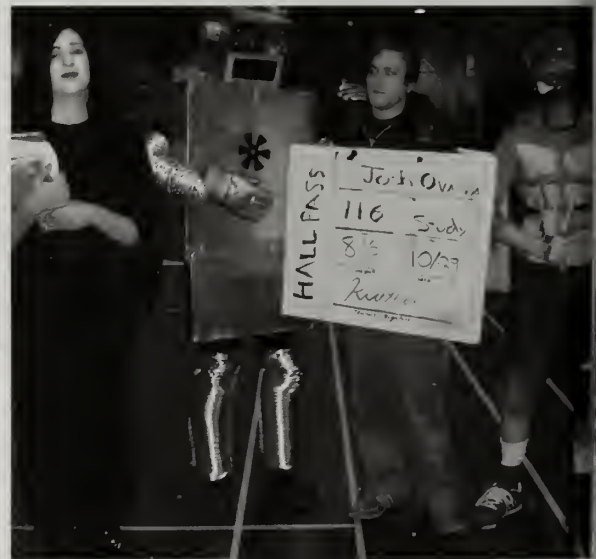

Sincerely,
Jayda Blinn, Class President

Activities: Skiing, Drama, Opera, Boating, Color guard, & having fun!

Ambitions: Besides one day ruling the universe. I would like to become a professional opera singer and eventually perform with the Boston Lyric Opera Company or the Metropolitan Opera Company. My dream is to travel the world performing the role of the Countess in Le Nozze Di Figaro.

Senior Quote: "When you have come to the edge of all the light you know, and are about to step into the darkness of the unknown, Fate is knowing one of two things will happen: There will either be something to stand on or you shall be taught to fly!"

Memories: I will always remember my sophomore year the day I let a friend practice rose in the girls bathroom after Ms. Horn's B-Block Biology class. A piece of advice: Don't do it, it hurts. My junior year was unforgettable. I met an amazing person who has become so very important to me, a person that I will always love and appreciate through thick, thin, and thinner. Thanks to my best friend Alana, for making my high school adventure one to remember. Luv ya bunches.

ties: Soccer, Lacrosse, shopping

Senior Quote: "I know we'll be friends for life, sharing our dreams together. As we walk down the road we'll never think twice, our memories will last forever. And although we're off to different worlds, somehow we're together. And even though we're far apart, our memories are deep within our hearts. These are the times to remember, our memories will last, forever more."

Memories: Thanks for all the great friendships and memories over the last four years.
You guys know who you are. I do have to bring back one event though from back in the day...gym-stealing my shoes and hiding them behind the bleachers. Thanks guys!
Then freshman year soccer, inking my face, and getting yelled at for quacking!?! Who knows. The homeroom gang, I'll miss the morning gassip...good luck guys. Then some more memories...annual PawSox game- Shown Ramirez. Bachelorette pad. Garage talk. Chicken soup- my true confessions. Spit - I'm not shisty. "Outback kangaroo."
Prank phone calls. Jim Locker- my BF. The bow snatcher, backseat driver, laser tag Tues night movies...yaa 1/2 price. Pram- lima dilemmas, it was still a blast. Coupons always. Concert in Boston arriving at 7am for a 3pm show. $15.00 throw away camera. Trying to find a bathroom in Boston- impossible. DQ runs- at least your car got clean. Campout craziness. Senior year soccer 2004 OCL champs. Chorades on the bus. "H.T." Harder and Harder to breath. Good times girls. I'm sure there are and will be more good memories. Good Luck in the future!

03. The Grape-Box talk with AJ Ryan and M.T. and "The Bet"

ing about my love for the Burger KING and my discussion of les with Mally, watching her face look at me in horror and AJ and laughing hysterically at her. Michelle and I climbing the Harriatic ountain and the Jr. Bocan double H. Going down to URI with P.M.

ML and having a fun time. Watching Natalie dip Max because didn't know how to tanga, laughing at P.M. for trying to do a push standing up, and washing our cars with dish soap because that's all could find. Good times boys! Skipping down Stap & Shop with planning our future wedding/divorce/wedding/divorce, and ting a million and one times. Embarrassing each other just because can, watching him make fun of people because he doesn't care.

ing to stop him and Steven beating each other and watching his famous face- where icks out his tongue and crunches up his face. Watching his Hockey Games, having rvball Fights, Tetherball tournaments, and our dreams of a joint family vacation.

ning to his praise Jesus speeches, Eat The Rain, Go Hard games, Kick The Can, ma Pool days, punching fights, the movie Almost Hero's, and 15 years of best

adship

Billy,

The past eighteen years have flown by as we have watched you grow into a fine young man. For as long as we can remember you have had a bat in your hand, or a ball at your feet. The joy you have given us watching you compete will last with us forever. Your childhood was probably different than what you expected but the experience of living overseas has helped you become the person you are today. We are extremely proud of you and look forward watching as you continue to succeed in college.

➤ Fenway Park has one of the last hand-operated scoreboards in the Major Leagues.

➤ Ted Williams of the Red Sox tips his hat to the fans during a farewell "Ted Williams Day" at Fenway Park on April 30, 1952.

- Behind the manual scoreboard in left field is a room where the walls are covered with signatures of players who have played left field through the years.
- No ball has ever been hit over the right field roof.
- In 1940, in an effort to help Ted Williams hit home runs, the Red Sox add the right field bullpen, known as Williamsburg, which reduces the distance to the fence by 23 feet.
- A seat in the right field bleachers is painted red to mark the spot where the longest measurable home run ever hit inside Fenway Park landed. Ted Williams hit the home run on June 9, 1946, off Fred Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers. It was measured at 502 feet and supposedly crashed through the straw hat of the man sitting in the seat (Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21).
- The New England Patriots are co-tenants at Fenway Park during the mid-60s. To avoid scheduling conflicts with the Red Sox, many of the Patriots' September games were played on the road or at alternate sites. In 1967, the Patriots first "home" game in Fenway Park was October 22.
